STATEMENT OF INVENTOR

I, Tokio Oi, a citizen of Japan, hereby state that I am one of the named inventors of U.S. Patent Application No. 10/771,380. I signed the original Declaration for this application on January 27, 2004. My printed name and signature on the original Declaration appear as "Tokio Ooi." In Japanese, there are certain rules regarding alphabetic notations of a name. One such rule of notation provides that a translation of my name may be spelled as either "Ooi" or "Oi." The second spelling is considered to be more formal and is preferred in certain official documents such as, for example, passports. After executing the original Declaration, I was reminded of this rule and indicated that the more formal spelling should be used. Because either spelling is correct, my signature on the original Declaration was included without any deceptive intention on my part.
